INSPIRED BY THE ARTY VIBE OF PENZANCE AND NEWLYN

Newlyn has a rich heritage and connection with art – the Newlyn School colony of artists formed in the 1880's putting this part of the world truly on the map. Newlyn School of Art is housed in the beautiful Victorian school building in the "artists" Quarter of Newlyn and is a must for those artists of all levels. Short courses, mentoring weekends, evening classes and painting holidays means something to suit everyone all year round.

POLDARK FILMING

TV's dramatization of Winston Grahams novels took in many of Cornwall's rich and stunning sites from Bodmin, Falmouth, Porthcothan but the stand out location had to be on our doorstep – at the St Just section of the Cornish Mining World Heritage Site – in particular Botallack. Penberth Cove, Porthgwara and Porthcurno were all featured in the dramatisation – coves and fishing communities – so you can walk in the shoes of Poldark and Demelza. For Poldark Filming Location Guided Tours walking and cycling on the Peninsular close to Penzance.
