DISCOVER AND PLAN: PENZANCE GEMS

ST MICHAEL'S MOUNT

With centuries of stories waiting within its castle walls, St Michael's Mount in Marazion is every child's dream playground.

THE PZ TOWN TRAIL

Uncover the story of Penzance by walking its official trail, taking in the town's history and some of its most interesting landmarks. As you walk around Penzance, you may notice small slate markers engraved with numbers on streets and buildings. Taken in turn, these form a whistle-stop tour of the town's heritage (not to mention its top beauty spots.)

THE PENZANCE PROMENADE

The iconic Penzance promenade stretches the seafront between The Jubilee Pool and Newlyn and is an idyllic place to stroll, roller skate, jog or just sit and people watch. Dating back to the 1800's the Promenade gives breath taking views of Mounts Bay and Newlyn, day or night there is something magical about.

JUBILEE THERMO POOL

Opened in 1935 to celebrate the silver jubilee of George V, the Jubilee Pool is an Art Deco masterpiece. Built on a historic bathing spot of the Battery Rocks, it provided safe and sheltered alternative to diving off the rocks and straight into the sea. Countrys largest seawater lido – not to be missed!

PENLEE HOUSE GALLERY AND MUSEUM

Penlee House is a fine Victorian building constructed in 1865 for the Branwell family. The park surrounding it was opened as a Second World War memorial garden, while the house became a museum.

MORRAB GARDENS AND PENLEE PARK & GARDENS

Don't miss: Stroll around and you'll find an ornate cast iron fountain, Victorian bandstand, ponds and war memorial; all hiding among the palms, olive trees and bamboo.

TREWIDDEN GARDEN

Don't miss: Essentially a maze of paths, Trewidden is best discovered by freely wandering. Highlights include the pond garden (with its whale tail sculpture) and the surprise police phone box near the north walk.

CHAPEL STREET & CAUSEWAY HEAD

Extending up from the Quay is one of the oldest parts of Penzance – dating back to the mid 18th century, Chapel Street is rich in history and a place where you can find the most eclectic mix of buildings and retail outlets. Independent shops in abundance – art, fashion, rugs, craft and design, gift and much more.
