Alfresco entertainment this summer at Trerice near Newquay

Pack a picnic and relax to a band, choir or theatre performance in the beautiful surroundings of the garden at Trerice near Newquay this summer.

On select dates throughout June and July, the Trerice Volunteer Choir will be performing a selection of songs from the 50s in celebration of the era when the National Trust started caring for Trerice - 70 years ago. Performances will take place on 30 June, 3 and 9 July from 2pm, and 14 July from 11:30am on the front lawn.

The entertainment continues with St Agnes Silver Band who will take to the parade ground on 23 June and 14 July at 1:30pm. These music events do not need to be prebooked and are free to National Trust members.

The live performance resumes on 17 July, when Cornish based Miracle Theatre will perform their production of Love Riot. This classic rom-com promises an evening of entertainment and laughter for all ages. The performance starts at 6:30pm, gates open at 5:30pm. Tickets range between £12.50 - £23.

Vic Hurry, Visitor Experience Officer at Trerice, said: 'We're really excited to kick off the summer with some fantastic musical entertainment, and to see the return of Miracle Theatre to Trerice. As well as providing a great afternoon or evening out in the beautiful surrounds of Trerice - these events give visitors a chance to enjoy the property after hours.'

Notes to editors:

About the National Trust

The National Trust is an independent conservation charity founded in 1895 by three people: Octavia Hill, Sir Robert Hunter and Hardwicke Rawnsley, who saw the importance of the nation's heritage and open spaces and wanted to preserve them for everyone to enjoy. Today, across England, Wales and Northern Ireland, we continue to look after places so people and nature can thrive.

We care for more than 250,000 hectares of countryside, 780 miles of coastline, 1 million collection items and 500 historic properties, gardens and nature reserves. In 2022/23 we received 24 million visitors to our pay for entry sites. The National Trust is for everyone - we were founded for the benefit of the whole nation, and our 5.7 million members, funders and donors, and tens of thousands of volunteers support our work to care for nature, beauty, history for everyone, for ever.
