Bluey Set to Make a Special Appearance at Camel Creek.

As school is back in full swing, Camel Creek is thrilled to offer some exciting term-time fun to keep everyone entertained - including a special visit from Bluey on Saturday 28th September!

This September, in addition to a special day out seeing Bluey, Camel Creek is offering a variety of special deals, including events and toddler specials that are perfect for the whole family.

Families can look forward to seeing Bluey at various times throughout the day for a fun-filled experience. Local families won't want to miss the chance to see their favourite character and create unforgettable memories, plus have the opportunity to snap some adorable pics. Camel Creek is already packed with exciting rides and attractions, but with Bluey in town, it's going to be an unforgettable family adventure!

Visitors will also have the opportunity to pick up an Autumn Adventure Passport from the gift shop upon arrival to participate in the exciting challenge of checking off all of the rides, playgrounds, and animals. Those who complete the challenge will be rewarded with an awesome prize! Visitors can purchase tickets for just £18 when booking in advance, available until half term. Please note, terms and conditions apply. Toddler Takeover sessions also return on Thursdays and Fridays during term time from 9.30am to 3.30pm, featuring indoor play, animal encounters, outdoor playgrounds, and delicious food and drink options for both kids and adults.

Graham Hayes, General Manager of Camel Creek commented:

"This September, we're thrilled to offer an exciting opportunity to see Bluey at the park! Join us for a chance to see Bluey in person and come along again to enjoy our popular Toddler Takeover sessions. We can't wait to welcome you back for a fun filled visit!"
