

New Event Space for Cornwall
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
5th February 2025

Following their successful inaugural Christmas Market, Cornwall Gold have now permanently opened their events area. Aptly named, The Tinner's Room, this multi-purpose space is available for private and corporate customers, offering a brand-new place for events in Cornwall.

Located just off the A30 near Redruth, Cornwall Gold benefit from an easily accessible central location. With ample free parking and free WiFi, they are ideal for a range of events from company conferences to personal celebrations. Their onsite award-winning café, The Cornish Pantry, is fully licensed, offering a range of food and drinks packages for those needing refreshments. From bespoke buffets to pastries, fruit platters, cream teas and unlimited teas and coffees, they have everything needed to ensure events go off without a hitch.

Far more than just a meeting place, The Tinner's Room is surrounded by Cornish heritage. Guests can enjoy the free, interactive Tolgus Mill Exhibition, tour the Grade II Listed Tolgus Mill or try their luck with the free panning for gold during a break. Fully accessible and dog friendly, the space can accommodate a range of requirements with a friendly team always on hand.

Mike Taylor, Cornwall Gold's Managing Director explains "When we opened up this room for our Christmas Market we knew there was the potential to turn it in to a permanent feature. Located right next to our café, The Cornish Pantry, it is perfectly placed with enough separation from our jewellery showroom without feeling out of the way. From birthday parties to corporate days, The Tinner's Room can accommodate a range of requirements and we look forward to welcoming more of the Cornish community through our doors!"

Available for booking either as a half day or full day, The Tinner's Room is available for booking now by emailing events@cornwall-gold.com or calling 01209 203 280.
