

Cornwall Gold's Popular Christmas Market Returns

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

5th March 2025

Following the enormous success of Cornwall Gold's inaugural Christmas market last December, the heritage attraction has confirmed the market will return this December with more stalls and festive fun planned.

Their first-ever Christmas market drew thousands of visitors from across the county to take advantage of the unique opportunity to enjoy Christmas shopping whilst fully immersed in Cornish history.

This year, their Christmas Market will run for four days, from 4th – 7th December, with plenty more stalls available, each thoughtfully placed throughout the attraction. All indoors, this sparkling market will be packed with plenty of festive fun whatever the weather with visitors able to sample some tasty treats in their award-winning café.

As Mike Taylor from Cornwall Gold explains “We were delighted with the success of our first Christmas market which, along with proving popular with visitors, was also highly regarded by stall holders. Building on this success, we are offering a wider range of stalls this year with varying sizes and locations available too. One of our core values is to support the local community and our Christmas market is a great opportunity to do just this.”

With the Christmas Market now confirmed for 4th – 7th December 2025, those wishing to exhibit are encouraged to contact events@cornwall-gold.com to express their interest.
