

Raise a Glass for Bowgie's Ale & Cider Festival 2025!

Bowgie Inn, Crantock, is counting down the days until its annual Ale & Cider Festival which is set to be the pub's biggest and best ever.

Taking place between the 22nd and 25th August, the line-up includes live music, silent disco, family-friendly fun, great food, local ales, craft ciders, gin tasting and much more.

"Last summer, our amazing community helped raise over £6,509.11 for Cornwall Hospice Care. Every drop, sip and singalong helped make that possible - and this year we're hoping to raise even more! All proceeds plus all bar takings will be donated directly to the cause" commented Sally Pickles, Owner and Landlord at Bowgie Inn. "This year's festival drinks list is all about celebrating the South West's incredible breweries, cider makers and distillers. From refreshing pints to perfectly poured G&Ts, there'll be something for everyone!"

Visitors can expect a packed programme of live entertainment across the four days, kicking things off on Friday 22nd August with a Silent Disco, Tarquin's Gin/ Jolly's Tasting Sessions and Newquay Rowing Club Singers. Saturday 23rd will see Acapella Sound and Lauren Bailey, Cider Tasting, Anton and Penny and Avalon and DJ Robo, Sunday 24th showcases Black Velvet, The Claze and Fireworks, and the final day on Monday 25th August welcomes Indian Queens Brass Band, Rhys 'The Nightchurch Pianist' and an Ale Festival Quiz.

"We're also going to have garden games, apple bobbing and Smite - Cornwall's answer to boules! There'll be a lovely family atmosphere and community spirit, and we can't wait to welcome everyone here for a bank holiday weekend to remember" continued Sally. "And let's not forget about the view overlooking Crantock beach which never fails to take your breath away."

Breweries involved in this year's Festival include: St Austell Brewery, Sharps Brewery, Atlantic Brewery, Firebrand Brewing, Southwestern Distillery, St Ives Brewery, Skinners Brewery/ Goodh Brewing Co, Healeys and Jolly's Drinks.

Megan Hampton from Cornwall Hospice Care, added, "We're incredibly grateful to the team at Bowgie Inn and everyone who supports their fantastic Ale & Cider Festival. Events like this not only raise vital funds for our Hospices, but also raise awareness of the care we provide across Cornwall. Bowgie Inn's ongoing commitment to our cause makes a real difference to the patients and families we support, and we're so thankful to be part of such a joyful, community-driven event."

Visit www.bowgie.com for more information, updates and news about the Ale & Cider Festival.

Bowgie Inn's Ale & Cider Festival takes place Friday 22nd - Monday 25th August.

Entry is FREE, welcome packs available to purchase on the door.

<https://we.tl/t-7lZqvyJ6Pp> - selection of captioned images